A Test Case. SELLING STOVEPIPE BEERS UNDER A WHOLE-SALE LICENSE. In the Police Court to-day Judge Snell had before him a test case, that of Christian Maisak, whose wholesale liquor license has been annulled by the Commissioners because he sold beer by the stovepipe, to be drank upon the premises. Messrs. John E. Norris and John A. Clarke appeared for Maisak, and Mr. Padgett for the District. Mr. Padgett called the court's attention to the case, and read the law under which the prosecution is brought. Counsel for defendant admitted the fact that they sold stovepipes of beer which were drank upon the premises, and produced the license which had been obtained by the defendant and subsequently annulled by the Commissioners. Counread the license granted, which provided that liquor should not be sold in quantities drank upon the premises. The judge continued the case for a lew days, in order to give counsel time to submit authorities and argue the case. CLOSING EXERCISES AT A NIGHT SCHOOL .-The closing exercises of the temale night schools at the Sumner building were held last evening. The schools went through their regular school exercises, consisting of reading, oral and written arithmetic and language lessons.

At the close of the exercises addresses were made by Mr. Brooks, Mrs. James and Prof. Montgomery.

Not Scoundrels but Scandals.—In the account in yesterday's STAR of the interview had by the citizen's school committee with the Commissioners, Mr. C. M. Matthews was reported as replying to a charge that the members of the school board were scoundrels. Mr. Matthews did not, it appears, use that expression. He did, however, notice a statement that the school board had promoted "scandals" and his words were misunderstood by the reporter.

"APOLOGETIC."

THE REALLY UNEXPECTED RUSH OF CUSTOMERS WITHIN THE LAST SEVEN DAYS HAD ALMOST DEPLETED OUR STOCK OF BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING BEFORE WE KNEW IT. WE THEREFORE ASKED THE KIND INDUL-GENCE OF THOSE WHO WERE UNABLE TO GET SUITED; BUT NOW WE FLATTER OURSELVES WE ARE IN A POSITION TO WITHSTAND THE HEAVIEST DEMANDS ON OUR RESOURCES, WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED BY ADAMS' EXPRESS FIF TEEN CASES OF CHOICE NOVELTIES IN BOYS' AND CHILDRENS' CLOTHING, WE BOUGHT THESE GOODS AT LEAST 20 PER CENT LOWER THAN WE COULD HAVE BOUGHT THEM A MONTH AGO SO THAT OUR GOOD FRIENDS AND PA-TRONS WILL CERTAINLY BE THE GAINERS BY HAVING WAITED A FEW DAYS LONGER, WE OF COURSE EX-PECTED TO DO A GOOD BUSINESS, BUT WE WERE NOT QUITE AWARE OF THE SEEMINGLY WIDE-SPREAD POPULARI-TY OUR GOODS AND PRICES HAVE AT-TAINED; THEREFORE WE WERE NOT QUITE PREPARED FOR 80 GREAT A SIEGE; BUT WE PROMISE NEVER AGAIN TO BE "CAUGHT NAPPING."
